

Company Policy

The quality of our products is the key to reliable relationships with customers. To achieve this value, we not only test finished products, but also monitor every single step as well as everyone involved and every department during the development processes.

Our vision for the future – investment and innovation – guarantee that we will continue to be able to keep up with higher requirements and new technologies. MAXFELD is committed to doing this while regarding legal obligations, helping to protect the environment and maintaining all natural resources in an ecological balance.

Using a continuous improvement process, we promote the quality and environmental awareness of our employees. Protecting our employees' health, occupational safety, and sensible management of incidents form the basis of these policies.

With expertise and friendliness, our top goal is complete customer satisfaction in all aspects of quality, on-time delivery, and availability to help solve problems.

Employees who are aware of their responsibilities and work to achieve goals means we live by DIN EN ISO 9001 and ISO /TS 16949 and meet the requirements of DIN EN ISO 14001.
